

2nd Annual Baton Rouge Civil War Symposium

April 27/ 28, 2018

"Civil War Life: Sex, Lies and Tintypes"

- How did the LSU Fighting Tigers get their name?
- Why did more Confederate than Union amputees survive the war?
- How did a C.S.A. General, missing an arm and leg, have 11 children in 10 years?

Imagine taking a journey back in time before the United States were just united states, doctors used poultices, and leeches, brothels thrived, and roving bands of outlaws were a constant threat to civility.

Learn how Louisiana's Tiger troops, straight from docks of the New Orleans, outrage citizens and strike terror into the hearts of both Union and Confederate soldiers.

Your speakers will take you on a journey back in time as they impart new insights and knowledge you will surely want to share with your friends.

As you browse through the vendor's wares, peruse the interactive historic displays and artifacts, you will get a taste of the civil war life.

Make plans with your friends, to join us for this fun and educational event.
