America has no north, no south, no east, no west. The sun rises over the hills and sets over the mountains, the compass just points up and down, and we can laugh now at the absurd notion of there being a north and a south. We are one and undivided.

SUMMER BATTLEFIELD WALK

Stu Dempsey's walk will cover the ground where Ames' Brigade fought. Meet at the Adams County Agricultural & Natural Resources Center ("AG Center") 670 Old Harrisburg Road at 6 PM.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE

For those tours that involve traversing the battlefield, all participants are advised to wear comfortable shoes and be prepared for extensive walking over rough, uneven ground with many different types of tripping hazards.

From September to May, we meet on the fourth Thursday of the month at the GAR Building, 53 East Middle Street. Light refreshments and conversation starting at 7:00 PM., and the featured program beginning at 7:30 PM.

Our June, July, and August summer meetings are in the field starting at 6:00 PM, with the meeting location announced in the bi-monthly newsletter and on the roundtable website: www.cwrgettysburg.org.

Whenever treacherous weather is predicted, the CWRT President and Vice President shall determine by Noon on that day whether the program should be cancelled or not. Announcements will be made on television station WGAL and radio station WGET 1320.

The next regularly scheduled board meeting begins at 6:30 PM on Thursday, July 10, 2009 at the Avenue Restaurant.

It was in 2001, having just moved to Gettysburg, that a neighbor asked if I wanted to go to a meeting of the Civil War Roundtable.

Being new in town and a Civil War buff I figured it would be a good way to learn more about the war and meet people. Little did I realize that eight years later I would be president of that same Roundtable.

As my predecessor, Joe Mieczkowski, is fond of saying. The Gettysburg Civil War Roundtable is the most important Roundtable, in the most important small town, at the most important battlefield, in the most important country in the world.

That said, it is important that we continue to provide great programs and field trips to our members.

Bill Hewitt, our new Vice President, is hard at work lining up some very impressive speakers for our upcoming meetings, our trip committee is well underway planning our field trip for 2010 and Dave and Linda Joswick, who have done a great job on our newsletter and website are planning to give our web site a major face lift.

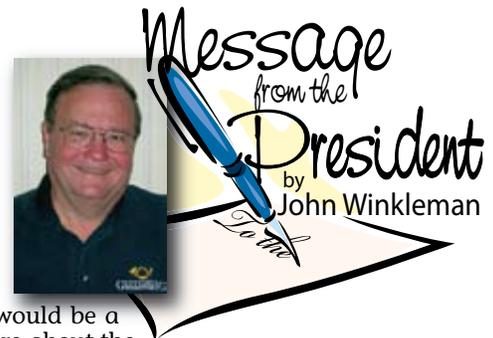

A president's job can be very rewarding if he has good officers and support and in this regard I am very fortunate in having some very talented and dedicated people to work with. But while the leadership of the roundtable will continue to provide interesting programs I would also like to hear from the membership. If you have any ideas for programs, field trips or anything else that you feel could enhance our meetings or benefit the Roundtable please let me or any of the officers know what you'd like to see.

With the summer season underway I hope everyone will take advantage of our field programs in July and August. While photos, maps and indoor programs are helpful, here at Gettysburg we have the best teaching tool available, the battlefield itself. If you really want to understand what happened here you have to get out and walk the ground and see what those men saw 146 years ago.

In closing I would like to thank our outgoing president, Joe Mieczkowski, and vice president Pat Fairbairn for the terrific job they have done for the past two years. Guys, your going to be a tough act to follow but I'll do my best.

Have a great summer and I hope to see many of you on the field.

John

Gettysburg RT adopts 2 Confederate soldiers

Contributed by JoyceAnn Deal

Following the Gettysburg Civil War Roundtable's recent Baltimore trip, the board has decided to participate in the Adopt a Confederate Veteran program by the Col. Harry W. Gilmore Camp #1388 of the Sons of Confederate Veterans at Loudon Park Cemetery in Baltimore, MD.

The Roundtable "adopted" Capt. John W. Hack of the 9th VA of Armistead's Brigade and Pvt. James C. Weller of the 24th VA of Kemper's Brigade. The gravestones of these two individuals are barely readable. Our donation will cover the costs of a 12" x 12" granite stone to be placed at ground level in front of the original stone at each grave. There will be a dedication ceremony in May of 2010. Detailed information about these two soldiers is available on the roundtable website at: cwrgettysburg.org.

Individuals wishing to participate on their own can get information at: www.mdscv.org/1388 and click on the Adopt a Confederate link.

9 July 1864: Battle of the Monocacy, Maryland

Some 6,000 men of the Federal Army, gathered from various sources, stood directly in the way of Jubal Early's Confederate advance upon Washington from Frederick, MD. Many of the Federals were inexperienced, untrained, and short-term men. After a stubborn fight, Lew Wallace's pickup force was routed and the march onward was clear for Early.

11 July 1864: Confederates Invade Washington Suburbs

Confederate soldiers were in the environs of Washington. At Silver Spring, MD, Jubal Early's men burned the home of the Blair family as Early tried to determine what sort of defensive troops were in the Federal Capitol.

30 July 1864: Battle of the Crater; Capture of Chambersburg, PA

"A fort and several hundred yards of earth work with men and cannon was literally hurled a hundred feet in the air," wrote a Southern soldier on witnessing "probably the most terrific explosion ever known in the country." For more than a month the 48th Pennsylvania, composed in large part of coal miners, had been digging a 586-foot long tunnel under the 400 feet between the Federal and Confederate lines at Elliott's Salient on the eastern side of the siege lines at Petersburg.

In the morning Confederate Cavalry entered Pennsylvania once more and rode into Chambersburg. They threatened to burn the town unless $500,000 in currency or $100,000 in gold be paid. The people could not raise such a sum so the town was fired.

5 August 1864: Battle of Mobile Bay

In the morning Adm. Farragut's Union fleet of 18 ships including four monitors entered Mobile Bay, passing between the fearsome forts guarding the three-mile channel.

31 August 1864

The Democrats balloted in Chicago for the presidential nomination, with Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan receiving 174 votes on the first ballot. George H. Pendleton of Ohio received the vice-presidential nomination on the second ballot.

Notable Quotables from Pat Fairbairn

"Let me tell you what is coming. After the sacrifice of countless millions of treasure and hundreds of thousands of lives you may win Southern independence, but I doubt it. The North is determined to preserve this Union. They are not a fiery, impulsive people as you are, for they live in colder climates. But when they begin to move in a given direction, they move with the steady momentum and perseverance of a mighty avalanche."

– Texas Governor Sam Houston

"I am loath to close. We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."

– Abraham Lincoln, March 4, 1861, from his First Inaugural Address

"I can anticipate no greater calamity for the country than the dissolution of the Union. It would be an accumulation of all the evils we complain of, and I am willing to sacrifice everything but honor for its preservation."

– Col. Robert E. Lee, U.S.A. in a letter to his son Custis, January 23, 1861

"That man will fight us every day and every hour till the end of the war."

– Lt. General James Longstreet speaking of Lt. General Ulysses S. Grant upon learning of his appointment as General-in-Chief of the Union Armies
